MAKING A HARDFIGHT

The Orphan School Syndicate Struggling for Recognition.

ANOTHER VICTORY FOR THE P. R. R.

The Senate to Concur in the Street Railway Bill.

COMPANY STORES ARE STILL LEGAL

(FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) HABBISBURG, April 24 .- This afternoon

the Appropriations Committee of the Senate had a bout with the bill providing an appropriation for the maintenance of the soldiers' orphans in accordance with the provisions of the bill prepared by the G. A. R.

Several persons appeared before the committee in opposition to the Kauffman smendment, which particularly specifies that no portion of the money shall be paid for the support of the orphans in any of the so-called syndicate schools at McAllisterville, Chester Springs, Mount Joy and Mercer. A strong effort is being made by the friends of these schools to induce the committee to strike out this amendment, which means the closing of the schools.

Among those who appeared before the committee against the an endment were ex-Representative Stranahan, of Mercer; Thomas Sample, of Pittsburg; Dr. Ziegler, of Mt. Joy, physician to the school at that place, and Representative Hertzler, of Juniata. There were also delegations from the localities of the four schools who presented arguments and testimony in their favor.

It is a pretty difficult matter to gauge the sentiment of the committee, but it is understood that the majority favor the removal of the orphans from the present schools and the placing of them in normal schools and other suitable institutions, where they will be removed from the influences of their present surroundings. The bill will be held in the committee awhile for further consideration. There is said to be a probability of the bill providing for amended in the Senate as to remove the restrictions that are objectionable to the SIMPSON.

A TILT IN THE SENATE,

Lieutenant Governor Davies Comes to Senater Hines' Support.

FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT. HARRISBURG, April 24.—Senator Hines spoke against Representative Hays' bill to permit oil companies to own stocks and bonds in other oil companies, but the Senate passed it finally, notwithstanding Senator Hines called it a Standard Oil measure. Senator Hines also fought hard to save the company store bill, but it lacked nine votes of enough. The objection urged against it by some of the speakers was that it merely forbade corporations to have company stores and did not afprivate concerns, which keep as many company stores as they had a the argument to be a valid one against the bill, while others found it very convenient to hide behind. Senator Rines says a number of Senators who promised him they would vote for the bill voted against it. During the debate on the matter be told the Senate about a conversation between himself and Senator Watres. in which the latter, who to-day opposed the bill, expressed himself warmly in favor of it. Senator Hines' revelation was stopped by a point of order, and President pro tem Grady, who was on the floor, showed a disposition to rub it in on him if possible. Lieutenant Governor Davies, however, wouldn't let Senator ernor Davies, however, wooldn't let Senator Hines be jumped on by either Senator Grady or Senator Watres, and his reproof of the former for departing from the merits of the bill to discuss the other Senator was very mild. The Lieutenant Governor has no love for the President protem, and keeps him out of the chair as much as possible. He hasn't permitted him to sign a bill this session, and Senator Grady feels rather hurt that his name will not appear on a single law of the Commonwealth unless something happens between now and adjournment. The reason for the Lieutenant Governor's dislike of the President pro tem has never been explained, but it didn't hurt Senator Hines to-day.

SCORING CARNEGIE.

Mr. Wherry Pokes Fan at the Ship Canal

(FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) HARRISBURG, April 24.-Mr. Andrews offered a letter from Mr. Carnegie as a part of his remarks to-night in favor of the ship canal resolution introduced by Captain Brown, of Beaver. Mr. Carnegie in the letter agreed with a published statement of Mr. Andraws that the canal was a solution of the anti-discrimination problem. After Mr. Andrews had spoken, Captain Brown explained that the bill was merely for the appointment of a commission to assertain and report on the said: "This House can see a joke as well as any one and cannot fail to see the sarcasm of the canny Scotchman. The gentleman from Crawford a convert to anti-discrimination. Good Lord, deliver us."

The Speaker considered Mr. Wherry personal and called him to order. Mr. Wherry came to order, and said if he had said anything offensive he withdrew it. He welcomed, in sarcastic vein, Mr. Andrews as a convert to anti-discrimination, but warned him he could not throw dirt in the eyes of the people.

Mr. Jones opposed the bill because it would be 69 years before occan vessels could sail up the Ohio and to the lakes. Mr. Dravo explained that it wasn't the ocean they were after now, but the lakes and the product of the Northwest. The resolution passed finally.

The House adjourned after midnight.

A Peculiar Mathematical Calculation Made by a State Legislator.

IFROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT, 1 HARRISBURG, April 24 .- A mathemati cal legislator to-day figured out the following: Giving ten minutes to the call of the s roll on the final passage of each bill, and the House calendar to-day would require the Reading Clerk to make a steady call of over eight and a half hours, there being 53 bills on eight and a haif hours, there being 53 bills on final passage. He will call out 10.312 names, and estimating that his jaw travels an inch every time, it will cover almost a quarter of a mile before it shiks to rest on the last name. Estimating again that the Reading Clerk's whiskers ware two inches at every call of a name, they would in the aggregate wave 21,624 inches, which, condensed into a series of (say) 30 waves, would create a breeze in the House that would put out the electric lights.

THE SENATE WOULD NOT CONCUR. A Conference Committee Appointed on the Street Rallway Bill.

FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) HARRISBURG, April 24 -The Senate refused to concur in the House amendment to the general street railway bill to-day, and a committee of conference was appointed con-sisting of Senators Delamater, Smith and Wil-non on the part of the Senate, and Representa-tives Andrews, Kerser and Fow on the part of the House.

It was expected that this would be the course when the bill passed the House, and nobody was surprised.

They All Want to Go.

[FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.] HARRISBURG, April 24.—One bundred and seventy-five members of the House having in-dicated to the Centennial Committee their in-tention to go to New York, it doesn't look as though the resolution to be offered to-morrow to have the House meet Monday would score much of a success.

AGAIN THE PENNST WINS.

Philadelphia Best Railway Project Knocked Out by the Legislators. FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.

HARRISBURG, April 24.-A debate nterest on the appropriations calendar tonight occurred when Mr. Wherry tried to have restored to the Philadelphia harbor have restored to the Philadelphia harbor improvement bill the proviso for the belt raliway. Mr. Fow opposed it, and the House refusing to go into committee of the whole for special amendment, Mr. Wherry suffered defeat.

Mr. Fow made many amusing statements to the effect that the effort to put the proviso in the bill was merely an attempt of the Baltimore and Ohio road to kill the measure. Its interests all lay in Baltimore, said Mr. Fow, and anything that helped Philadelphia injured Baltimore, and as a consequence, the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. Mr. Fow, however, declared himself not opposed to a belt railway, free to all competitors, and it being now too late in the session to bring in any new bills, he was warmly in favor of treating the matter separately. This is one more triumph for the separately. This is one more triumph for the Pennsylvania Railroad scored in this model Legislature.

THE GENERAL REVENUE BILL PASSED. Its Operation Will Tax State Institution Which Have Hitherto Escaped.

IFROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT. HARRISBURG, April 24.—The general revenue bill passed the Senate finally to-day, and goes to the House for concurrence. There may be some trouble there concerning the striking out by the Senate of the Neff amendment permitting the subtraction of debts from money at interest in making assessments.

On third reading, Senator Newmyer tried unsuccessfully to have alate companies included among those exempt from taxation. He and Senator Reyburn are the only Republicans who voted against the bill. Three democrats formed the remainder of the opposition, Senators Reyburn and Newmyer share the opinion that the tax on money at interest is not wholly just and may be attended with bad results.

Auditor-General McCament says the passage of the bill in its present shape permits the taxation of such institutions as the Dollar Savings Bank, of Pittsburg, which has hitherto escaped.

MANUAL TRAINING ASSURED.

Colonel Benn Says Nothing but Money is Needed to Put It in Operation.

FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.] HARRISBURG, April 24.-The manual training bill introduced by Colonel Bean is acknowledged by him to be dead for the session, but he is not worrying about that, as he shares the opinion that existing laws are ample. "Besides," he says, "a member from your county, Mr. Robison, introduced your county, Mr. Robison, introduced a bill, which is now in the Senate, which briefly legalizes manual training in the public schools. I expressed myself to the Commission that a bill was unnecessary, but that if we could pass one to our own liking it would be that much gained. What we want now is to increase the appropriation for the public schools from the $1,500,000 the Appropriations Committee is willing to give us to $2,000,000. Then manual training will be an assured fact.

MONEY FOR THE PEN.

Some Objections Raised to the Proposed Appropriation for Improvements. [FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.] HARRISBURG, April 24 .- The Senate Appropriations Committee made a favorable report to-night on the appropriation for salaries and maintenance of the Western Penitentiary. Some members of the committee objected to the appropriation for all improvements on the ground that there were not enough prisoners in the institution to justify it. Aftersome discussion of the matter consideration of it was temporarily postponed.

PRODUCERS MAY ORGANIZE. But Milk Dealers Cannot Come Into the

Knights of Labor. Master Workman Ross, of D. A. 3, K. of L., is in favor of the formation of Assemblies of Milk Producers, as proposed by the latter recently and reported exclusively in THE DISPATCH. He says, however, that the dealers are not eligible to membership in the order, that is, they cannot form assemblies. Three-quarters of the members of any assembly must be either producers or wage-workers. No saloon-keepers, barkeepers, gamblers, bankers or brokers are eligible to member-ship in the order either. The milk dealers, that is, the middle men, cannot come into the order. Mr. Ross said that several of the producers who were now anxious to join the Knights of Labor, had condemned the order years ago, but now are beginning to see the benefits of organization. No application has as yet been made for a charter, nor will there be until after the next meeting or two until after the next meeting or two.

Of course everybody knows what this means nowadays; it's so transparent. COMPARATIVE PURITY and STRENGTH

PITTSBURG CLOTHING DEALERS GOVERNMENT TEST

Summer Flannels and Flan- For Purity, Capitalistic Strength, Magnitude

of Business and Truth in Advertising We'll Mark

(Bear on hard, Mr. Printer):

Government test shows no ammonia, but square dealing, with a trace of "sand" and back-bone dust.

Then comes the "swell" tailor (like unto them that do advertises Breeches maker to H. R. H. the Prince of Wales.") American, Scotch, Gallons - - $1 35 $2 00 Polka-spot English Flannel. Irish and French Woolens are unknown to them; everything is "English, ette, 28 inches wide, fine, sub- ye know," and very "swell" (especially the swollen prices). A coat of stantial goods; full variety of arms (made reversible) goes with every sale. Six months' credit is given at 10 per cent per month.

Government test shows some ammonia and alum, and strong traces of "soft soap," ginger bread and pate de foie grass. * * * * *

Next we'll test the cheap made-to-order-while-you-wait tailors. No "English, ye know," about them; they're all "Americans" (as any one knows who look at their goods). Their styles are as loud as a Fourth of July celebration. No purity to be found in them; cotton worsteds, cotton all-woolens, backed up by cheap, flasby trimmings, and tempting "specimens" in their windows are what they depend on. The amount of the required little "deposit" (as an evidence of good faith) in nine cases out of ten, is full value for the suit.

For comparison, we'll mark

Government test shows lots of ammonia, alum, aloes and "gall," with a trace of kerosene and caraway seeds.

Here's a clothier whose coat tales are "tailor-made" suits for $10. ent fancy patterns, spots, etc. If he sells a $5 suit it is "tailor-made." Everything is "tailor-made." Sold an umbrella not long ago and actually told the buyer 'twas "tailornade." His overalls are "tailor-made," so are his hats. In fact, he's crazy on the "tailor-made" nonsense.

and ammonia, but more paregoric and lime. We will now try the "Hurrah," "Great Sacrifice," "Bankrupt Sale" clothing "feller." He seldom does business under his own name; twouldn't do. One half of the 50 or 60 per cent profit he charges, and gets, on his "mark-down" and "sacrifice" sales, goes to the newspapers, to tempt more "suckers." He buys hard stuffs (mostly satinets) poorly made Men's suits, that cost him $3, $4, $5, $6, $7, $8, $9 and $10marks them all at from $15 to $30; advertises "50 per cent discount;" 'suits for $10, worth $20," etc., etc., and pockets a cool 50 to 100 per cent. He's teetotally bad, full of adulteration and impudence.

Government test shows not much of anything in him; some alum

We'll mark him thus: THE SACRIFICE SWINDLIN

WHEN HE IS KNOWN. Government test shows no ammonia in him; you can tell by him bottom side up on a hot stove, same as "baking" powder. Hardly anything in him but al-ka-lie, with traces of fly-paper and glucose. * * * * * *
